

Guided Reading Notes for

Behavioral Artistry: Examining the Relationship Between the Interpersonal Skills and Effective Practice Repertoires of Applied Behavior Analysis Practitioners

By Kevin Callahan, Richard M. Foxx, Adam Swierczynski, Xing Aerts, Smita Mehta, Mary-Ellen McComb, Susan M. Nichols, Gabrielle Segal, Andrew Donald, and Rachita Sharma

Find the article at: <https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pmc/articles/PMC6707962/>

Expanding on BACB Task List items B-02 and K-02 among others.

1. In this article BA stands for (p 3557): _____

As compared to a BT which stands for (p 3558): _____

2. In addition to having good communication and technical skills, Foxx hypothesized seven additional skill sets that behavioral artists possess. These include (p 3558):

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

7. _____

3. Behavioral artistry is similar in concept to (p 3559) _____ from the field of clinical psychology and counseling as well as to the concept of (p 3559) _____ from the field of special education.

4. The purpose of this study was to (p 3559):

• _____

• _____

- _____
- _____

5. _____ (p 3560) was the instrument used to measure personality traits aligned with behavioral artistry with (p3561) # _____ of the # _____ personality factors supportive of the behavioral artistry concept.

6. The parent validation component of this study utilized an (p3561) _____ to collect data about parents' opinions in regards to the personality traits of therapists from # _____ participants.

7. The 16 PF Survey was used to compare behavioral artistry characteristics of (p3561):

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

8. When conducting observations of therapists, the team videotaped six 10-minute periods of therapy sessions but only analyzed the final three as a means to limit (p 3562) _____.

9. The videotaped session segments allowed the team to measure (p 3562) _____ characteristic and (p 3563) _____ skills.

10. When comparing behavioral artistry characteristics by major, the ABA students had a (p 3564) _____ percentage of traits compared to other human services majors.

11. When video sessions examined DTT and NET separately, the (p 3566) _____ group had a higher number of NET sessions, higher rates of 'pleasant facial expressions' during DTT and higher rates of 'positive tone of voice' during NET.

12. The discussion suggests several areas for future research including determining if behavioral artistry can be taught. What is one area of behavioral artistry that you would like to work on improving in your practice (p3567)? _____
